5. ALDERMAN BYERLY commended Utility Clerk, Jeanette Burnor, on the recent water system switch-over. He asks that patrons be patient with the switchover. ALDERMAN PALMER had had a meeting with various churches and groups regarding preparation for the 2025 Easter Egg Hunt slated for April 19, 2025. She said if anyone would like to stuff eggs or donate candy for the event, please let her know. ALDERMAN THERING relayed that the Knob Noster Stealth Panther Robotics season is starting again. There will be a robotics event in Sedalia over the weekend. Should anyone wish to watch, they can stream it at home on Blue Alliance. ALDERMAN CHARRETTE said that on March 6, 2025, there would be a commemoration even for Christopher Ryan Morton, a police officer killed in the line of duty in Clinton Missouri, at the Knob Noster cemetery. MAYOR CARTER said that patrons had approached him regarding getting stoplights on the overpass to allow on/off ramp easier access to Highway 23. Mayor said that he believes that the new school will be addressing this issue in due time. The patron should contact MoDot, in the meantime, to relay their wish for stoplights on Hwy 23.
6. The Interim City Administrator presented his report.
7. Paul Bertschy, Knob Noster Road, relayed to the Board of Aldermen that he believes the old railroad spur off of Highway 23 would be the optimal place for the Spirit Trail to come through from the Knob Noster State Park.
8. Motion to pass Bill No. 030425-A: An Ordinance Adopting a Privacy Policy that Meets New Federal Regulations For the Storage and/or Sharing of Personal Consumer Information, Communicates Information Via Text Messages, and/or Other Regulations as Required, to its first reading, by title only, was made by ALDERMAN BYERLY with second by ALDERMAN DENNIS.
